Keeping Healthy

1. Do you encourage employees and volunteers to stay home when they are sick or have flu symptoms? □ Yes □ Needs Attention

2. Do you encourage your employees and volunteers to wash hands frequently and thoroughly? □ Yes □ Needs Attention

3. Do your employees and volunteers have ready access to alcohol-based hand sanitizer in areas where soap and water are not available? □ Yes □ Needs Attention

4. Do your employees and volunteers know that they should avoid touching their eyes, nose, and mouth to avoid spreading germs from their hands? □ Yes □ Needs Attention

5. Does your ministry have set guidelines for how to address children who become ill while in your care? □ Yes □ Needs Attention

6. Does your ministry have set guidelines for how to clean and disinfect surfaces in nurseries, restrooms, and even office settings to prevent the spread of illness? □ Yes □ Needs Attention

7. Do you encourage your employees to practice good health habits, like getting plenty of rest, being physically active, drinking plenty of fluids, and eating nutritious foods? □ Yes □ Needs Attention

8. Does your organization have a disaster plan that could be implemented in the event of a public health emergency, like a pandemic flu or infectious disease outbreak? □ Yes □ Needs Attention

9. Do you have written, job-specific safety training guides that encourage healthy practices in the workplace? □ Yes □ Needs Attention

Notes: __________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________

Completed by: ___________________________________________ Date: __________