

Sample School Form Parent Consent for Student Photo Release

Dear Parent or Guardian,

At various times during the school year, designated school staff or representatives, affiliated organizations, and the media may photograph or video school activities on and off campus. As a result, your student's image and name could be captured either directly or indirectly. Photos or video may be published in school publications, school website, school social media accounts, video, yearbook, news releases, billboards, ads, promotions, news stories, and more.

Please make your selection below:

O Yes – Student Photo May Be Released

I give consent for photos/video taken of my child during this school year to be used for publicity, promotional and/or educational purposes. I do this with full knowledge and consent and waive all claims for compensation for use or for damages.

🖸 No – Student Photo May Not Be Released

I do NOT give consent for photos or video taken of my child to be used for publicity, promotional, and/or educational purposes.
