

Youth Worker Consent Form: Youth Ministry Communication Policy

Texting, e-mailing, and other forms of electronic communication have become common today, especially among students. I understand that electronic media can play a vital role within youth ministry but can have serious consequences if used improperly.

As an employee or volunteer youth worker of (ministry name), I agree to abide by the ministry's risk management policies and procedures relating to texting and electronic communication in connection with its youth program.

As part of that policy, I authorize (ministry name) to obtain copies of telephone or Internet records related to my youth worker activities, if (ministry name) needs these records to investigate or document an incident. I agree to help the ministry obtain any records it requests.

I promise to release (ministry name), including its officers, employees and agents, from any and all claims, liability, or causes of action for damages associated with this consent form. Damages may include, but are not limited to, such claims as breach of privacy, defamation, libel, slander, emotional distress, and/or negligence.

I have read and fully understand the provisions of this document. I acknowledge that I have decided to sign this form voluntarily.
